Climate Wise Women:
Global Leadership
From The Grassroots

a Public Dialogue

Join us for a brown bag lunch and lively discussion with three extraordinary women from around the world

What: Presentations and audience discussion
When: Tuesday, October 8, 1:00-2:00pm
Where: University of Texas, Austin, Batts 5.108

Welcome: Dr Terri Givens, Associate Professor, Department of Government, Center for African and African American Studies, European Studies, College of Liberal Arts, University of Texas, Austin

Moderator: Vicky Markham, Director, Center for Environment and Population (CEP)

Special Guest Speakers:
- Constance Okollet, Uganda, Farmer, Climate Wise Women - Founding Member
- Ngozika Onuzo, Nigeria, National Youth Services Corps, Climate Wise Women Member
- Thilmeea Hussain, Maldives, Voice Of Women - Founder, Climate Wise Women Member
- Jacinta Helin, Carteret Islands, Advocate for Tulele Peisa, NGO

Audience Questions and Discussion

Bring your own brown bag lunch!

Co-organized by: Center for Environment and Population (CEP), Climate Wise Women, University of Texas (UNT). For information contact: Vicky Markham at vmarkham@cepnet.org or Terri Givens at tgivens@austin.utexas.edu